Gospel Reading

Sunday, May 31, 2026

John 3:16-18

God sent his Son into the world to save the world.

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next, however, are designated as solemnities—special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today on Trinity Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons.

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life.

After the dialogue with Nicodemus, the author of the Gospel offers his own explanation of Jesus' words. This is what we read in today's Gospel, John 3:16-18. In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Prayers for Elections (with Bible Verses)

James 1:5—"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God... and it shall be given him."

Elections require wisdom for voters, leaders, and workers. God generously gives wisdom to those who ask in faith.

Prayer:

"Generous God, grant wisdom to voters, clarity to candidates, and discernment to officials. Remove confusion and grant understanding. Help us see with honesty, choose with care, and act with love for neighbor and nation. Amen."

From St. Faustina's Diary Unite Yourself With Me

My daughter, do not omit Holy Communion unless you know well that your fall was serious; apart from this, no doubt must stop you from uniting yourself with Me in the mystery of My love. Your minor faults will disappear in My love like a piece of straw thrown into a great furnace. Know that you grieve Me much when you fail to receive Me in Holy Communion (Diary, 156).

Prayer Response

Lord Jesus, may my minor faults disappear in the fire of Your love when I receive You in Holy Communion. In no way do I want to grieve You.

Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

On June 11, the U.S. bishops will consecrate the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as part of the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. People around the country are encouraged to join the bishops in celebrating the consecration of our nation to the Sacred Heart. Here in the Archdiocese of Atlanta the diocesan consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus will take place at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Atlanta on Friday, June 12th. Due to spacing concerns, Holy Masses will be celebrated at local parishes as well. The consecration will take place and Holy Mass will be celebrated at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church on June 12th at 12 noon. The novena will begin on June 3rd. Please see our parish website for details on how to pray the novena leading to the consecration.
