From St. Faustina's Diary

Part II: With a Sinful Soul

Conversation of the Merciful God with a Sinful Soul.

Jesus: I am your strength, I will help you in the struggle.

Soul: Your response.

Jesus: My child, do you fear the God of mercy? My holiness does not prevent Me from being merciful.

Behold, for you I have established a throne of mercy on earth — the tabernacle — and from this throne I desire to enter into your heart. I am not surrounded by a retinue or guards. You can come to Me at any moment, at any time; I want to speak to you and desire to grant you grace (Diary, 1485).

Soul: Your response.

My Prayer Response With St. Faustina

Lord, before the throne of mercy on earth, the tabernacle of Your Eucharistic Presence, I ask for mercy for souls that are afraid of You. Be especially merciful to them and draw them to Yourself.

Gospel Reading—Sunday, December 28, 2025 Matthew 2: 13-15, 19-23

In a dream, God tells Joseph to flee to Egypt to protect Jesus from King Herod.

Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. As we do so, our Gospel invites us to consider Joseph's protection of Jesus in the face of danger. Just as in the announcement of Jesus' birth, an angel appears to Joseph in a dream. The angel warns him of Herod's plans to harm Jesus. Joseph follows the command of the angel and takes Joseph and Mary to Egypt, returning only after receiving word in another dream that it was safe to do so.

This feast is part of the Christmas season, so we should look at today's Gospel in the context of what Scripture tells us about Jesus' birth. Today's reading is found in the Gospel of Matthew, following the story of the visit of the Magi. Recall that Matthew's story about the birth of Jesus makes Joseph the primary character. Among Matthew's themes in this infancy narrative is Jesus as the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies about the messiah. Indeed, the story of the Holy Family's flight to Egypt recalls the story of Moses in the Book of Exodus.

It should also be noted that today's reading omits the verses that recount Herod's order of the massacre of the infant boys in and around Bethlehem. We mark this event on the Feast of the Holy Innocents on December 28.

These events remind us of the difficult reality of Jesus' birth. While the story of the Magi's visit will be recalled in our liturgy on the Feast of the Epiphany, our Christmas celebration is made more sober by the recollection that not everyone received Christ's birth with joy or obedience. Herod's jealousy and malice contrast with Joseph's obedience to the words of the angel. The Holy Family's escape to Egypt and the massacre that Jesus is saved from remind us of the struggles and sacrifices that are required as preparation for God's salvation.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

We now offer OCIA classes in Spanish. This class is for adults seeking Baptism into the Catholic faith, or who are already Catholic but need First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation. This class will also assist those who need to have their marriage blessed by the church. Classes will meet every Monday from 6:00—7:30 p.m. in Room 6. For additional information, please contact Natalia Flores at (678) 637-2993.

What Our Children Are Being Taught In School

Our children are often taught at school that the "science" of global warming is certain, but the science of when life begins is uncertain.

This is entirely disingenuous, illustrating a secularist agenda beholden to abortion and population control. The fact is, no scientific, biological or medical textbook says that life begins at any point other than conception.

The issue of abortion is not a matter of religion or faith, (as is frequently claimed) but rather science. Indeed, Ms. Charlotte Taft, a Texas abortion clinic director made this abundantly clear at a National Abortion Federation conference.

When asked by a fellow pro-abortion advocate whether abortion was the deliberate ending of human life, she simply responded "It would be best for you not to see a sonogram."
