In today's unpredictable world, the unthinkable can become reality without warning. But knowledge is power, and preparation can mean the difference between victim and survivor. CRASE is a training module that empowers civilians to take decisive actions during the critical moments of an active threat event.

Early Church Fathers and Abortion

One of the arguments in Roe v Wade court was: "It perhaps is not generally appreciated that the restrictive criminal abortion laws ...are not of ancient or even of common law origin."

This is misleading. Consider the following teachings by early Church Fathers. The first passage comes from the Didache (Greek for "teaching"), which is usually dated as early as the end of the first century: "...you shall not murder a child by abortion nor kill that which is begotten" (chapter 2). This statement is as clear as it gets.

The second passage is from St. Barnabas from the early second century: "You shall love your neighbor more than your own soul. You shall not slay the child by procuring abortion; nor, again, shall you destroy it after it is born" (Chapter 19).

St. Basil the Great (c.330-379): "Women also who administer drugs to cause abortion, as well as those who take poisons to destroy unborn children, are murderers" (Letter 188, to Amphilochius concerning the canons, section 8). Notice here how St. Basil is not making any distinctions about what stage in the pregnancy is okay to administer drugs to cause abortion. Nowhere in these quotes is there a distinction being made between any "stages" of life. For the Fathers, abortion is unequivocal taking of life. Pro Life Articles

Gospel Reading—Sunday, June 14, 2026

Matthew 9:36-10:8

Jesus sends the twelve apostles to proclaim the kingdom of heaven.

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection.

The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church.

Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means "one who is sent." In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed.

As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.

From St. Faustina's Diary The Most Tender of Mothers

In order that you may know at least some of My pain, imagine the most tender of mothers who has great love for her children, while those children spurn her love.

Consider her pain. No one is in a position to console her. This is but a feeble image and likeness of My love (Diary, 1447).

Prayer Response

Lord Jesus, I pray that my fervent and loving reception of You in Holy Communion may be a consolation to You. I cannot begin to imagine Your pain when souls receive You indifferently. Help me to love You more deeply and tenderly.
