The Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

POPE FRANCIS' JULY PRAYER INTENTION

For the elderly. Let us pray for the elders who represent the roots and memory of people, that their experience and wisdom will help the youngest to look to the future with hope and responsibility.

From St. Faustina's Diary My Agonizing Heart

MEDITATION:

“Jesus, I beg You, by the inconceivable power of Your mercy, that all the souls who will die today escape the fire of hell, even if they have been the greatest sinners. Today is Friday, the memorial of Your bitter agony on the Cross; because Your mercy is inconceivable, the Angels will not be surprised at this.” Jesus pressed me to His Heart and said, My beloved daughter, you have come to know well the depths of My mercy. I will do what you ask, but unite yourself continually with My agonizing Heart and make reparation to My justice. Know that you have asked Me for a great thing, but I see that this was dictated by your pure love for Me; that is why I am complying with your requests (Diary, 873).

MY PRAYER RESPONSE:

Lord Jesus, may I pray with boldness and trust in You as St. Faustina did. May I hear the beautiful words that she heard from You as I make reparation to Your justice!

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.*

Gospel for Sunday June 26, 2022 Luke 9: 51-62

Jesus resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem, which will end with his ministry in Jerusalem. We read that Jesus' days for being “taken up” were fulfilled. The Greek word that Luke uses for “taken up” is the same word he uses to describe the Ascension. We also read that Jesus is determined to journey to Jerusalem. For Luke, Jesus ministry begins in Galilee and then is one long journey to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem he will meet his death but also enter into his glory. Only in Luke does Jesus then spend 40 days in Jerusalem instructing his disciples. It is in Jerusalem that his disciples wait after his Ascension to be sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. And it is from Jerusalem, in Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, that the Good News is spread to Rome and the ends of the earth.

Immediately Jesus is met with rejection, as a Samaritan village will not receive him because he is going to Jerusalem. Jesus was also rejected as he began his ministry in Galilee in Chapter 4. And he will be rejected for the last time when he reaches Jerusalem. James and John want to call down fire from heaven to destroy the people in the village, but Jesus rebukes them and moves on. There is often the temptation to use violence to achieve right. Jesus has come to break this temptation. He is aware that he must undergo violence himself before he can enter his glory.

The rest of today's reading is about the radical demands of discipleship. The three people who volunteer to become disciples on this journey show that they do not understand the demands Jesus will make of them. Neither care of self, care for the dead, nor care of one's family can come before the demands of discipleship. Jesus reminds the first volunteer, who would go wherever Jesus goes, that animals in the wild have more security than do Jesus and his followers. The second, who wants to bury a parent, is reminded that the demands of proclaiming the Kingdom of God take precedence. And the third, who wants to say farewell to his family, is reminded that once you put your hand to the plow you cannot look back or the furrow will be crooked.

Jesus seems harsh here, but he is only asking of his disciples what he asks of himself. Jesus' unconditional commitment to God's saving work will demand of him his life. He knows this, but the disciples do not understand. Jesus does not want anyone to rush into discipleship, because the demands of discipleship require everyone considering it to be aware of the cost, make Jesus and his mission central to his life, and then go forward without looking back.

Abortion, Harbinger Of Decline

It has been said that there is nothing worse for a mother than to lose a child. If this is so, just think of the 62 million women in our country who are suffering from their great loss after having had an abortion. They must be devastated knowing it was their own decision to kill their baby.

Then we ask how these terrible abortions could be allowed? Back in 1973, the U. S. Supreme Court ruled to make abortion legal. It made a horrible mistake. Those justices were only human and we humans, led on by the devil, make mistakes called sin.

They took it upon themselves to override God's Fifth Commandment, which states 'Thou shalt not kill.' Absolutely no one can change God's law - ever.

And since then, it seems our country has gone downhill, anything goes. If it's OK to kill babies, then they believe it's OK to kill anyone. If it's OK to kill, it's OK to steal; then it's OK to pedal dope and to use dope, and so it's OK to lie and to cheat.

We are in big trouble people. We need our elected officials to stop squabbling and turn our country around and put God back into our lives where He belongs. Now.

Ruth Weber, Davenport, Iowa

Change of Seasons

Summer weather is upon us, and with it, the season of shorts and all types of seasonal clothing. Please remember that we must always be respectful of the sanctity within God's house. Our clothing should reflect this as well. When we come to Church, we should be dressed appropriately as we will be in the presence of the Lord. Please refrain from wearing shorts, strapless dresses or strapless tops. Bare shoulders should be covered with a sweater or shawl. Be aware that the thermostat in the Church will be set at 69° for the warm months.

AM 1160 The Quest is a non-commercial AM/online radio station that offers a diverse mix of programming relevant to Christians today, with over 45 shows from around the country including news, live call in shows, prayer, and discussions on important and timely faith topics. We operate a large, 50,000-watt AM station capable of reaching 3.1 million metro Atlanta commuters from dawn to dusk, as well as provide global 24/7 access through our website and app. Our programming is rooted in the teachings of the Catholic Church and helps listeners learn new and fascinating aspects of our faith, gain a stronger and deeper understanding of the Gospel and the beauty of the Mass, and stay informed on critical issues Catholics face.
