O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Preparation for the Consecration to the Holy Family

Dearest Heavenly Father, Father of mercies, your Only Begotten Son, as He hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, His Mother, to be our Mother also. Grant, we pray, that with her loving help, and that of her most chaste spouse, Saint Joseph, we may humbly and prayerfully prepare ourselves as the parish of St. Vincent de Paul, for consecration to the Holy Family. We humbly make our prayer in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us prepare for the Parish's Consecration to the Holy Family.

This will take place in the following way:

1. Pray at least one decade of the Rosary (one Our Father, ten Hail Mary's and the Glory Be) and the Consecration Prayer (listed above) daily.
2. Attend Holy Mass every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation.
3. Go to Confession.
4. Adore our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The novena of prayers for the renewal of the parish consecration is underway. The consecration will take place on December 31 & January 1, during all Holy Masses. The Consecration to the Holy Family is a Knights of Columbus Faith in Action Program.

Eucharistic Revival The Holy Spirit and the Eucharistic Celebration

Against this backdrop we can understand the decisive role played by the Holy Spirit in the eucharistic celebration, particularly with regard to transubstantiation. An awareness of this is clearly evident in the Fathers of the Church. Saint Cyril of Jerusalem, in his Catecheses, states that we "call upon God in his mercy to send his Holy Spirit upon the offerings before us, to transform the bread into the body of Christ and the wine into the blood of Christ. Whatever the Holy Spirit touches is sanctified and completely transformed."

My daughter, your struggle will last until death. Your last breath will mark its end. You shall conquer by meekness (Diary, 1597).

I have need of your sufferings to rescue souls (Diary, 1612).

MY PRAYER RESPONSE

Jesus, help me not to waste my sufferings, little or great, because You need my sufferings to rescue souls. Keep me meek before You as I suffer and pray for souls.

**The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.*

Gospel for Sunday November 27

Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus tells his disciples that the coming of the Son of Man will catch many people unprepared. Jesus tells his disciples that they are to always be ready for the day of the Lord.

Today is the first Sunday of Advent, which is also the first Sunday of a new liturgical year for the Church. Season includes the four Sundays that precede Christmas. It is a time of preparation for the coming of the Lord. In this season, we recall two central elements of our faith: the final coming of the Lord in glory and the incarnation of the Lord in the birth of Jesus. Key themes of the Advent season are watchful waiting, preparation, and justice.

In this new liturgical year, the Gospel of Matthew will be the primary Gospel proclaimed (Lectionary Cycle A). In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus speak about the need for wakefulness, for watchful waiting, for the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew's Gospel is dated by most scholars after 70 A.D. Most believe that Matthew wrote for a primarily Jewish community, but one that was no longer centered on the Temple in Jerusalem. These were Jewish Christians trying to come to terms with their relationship to Judaism in a new situation: Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem. There may have been Christians who believed that the events of the world around them gave evidence of the imminent return of the Lord in glory.

The passage from Matthew we read today is rather straightforward. No one knows the precise time of the coming of the Lord in glory, so watchful waiting and vigilance are required. The passage speaks to the uselessness of looking for signs; there will be none. As a thief sneaks in during the night, so will the Lord's coming in glory be.

The question for us as members of the Christian community, then, is how do we prepare for this? Today's passage speaks more about the manner of waiting, rather than the details of the preparation. Jesus compares the vigilance required of Christians to the vigilance of a homeowner who knows the plans of the thief. If one knows that the thief's action is imminent, one remains watchful. As Christians, we know that our Lord is coming even if we cannot know the precise timing. Jesus calls us to be watchful and vigilant, like the homeowner. If we become lax in our Christian living, we may be caught unprepared.

Mass Time Change

The Saturday 6 p.m. Vigil Holy Mass that is celebrated in Spanish will move to Sunday at 3:00 p.m., beginning the weekend of December 31st and January 1st. Any scheduled Mass Intentions will move with the Holy Mass.

Rite for the Beginning of Advent at Home

First Sunday of Advent

The first day the wreath is in the home the leader may say:

As our nights grow longer and our days grow short, we look upon these earthly signs, light and green branches, and remember God’s promise to our world: Christ, our Light and our Hope, will come. Listen to the words of Isaiah the prophet: “The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; on those who lived in a land as dark as death a light has dawned. You have increased their joy and given them gladness. They rejoice in your presence as those who rejoice at harvest, as warriors exult when dividing spoil. (Is. 9: 1-2)

Then all pray:

O God, Rejoicing, We remember the promise of your Son. As the light from this candle, may the blessings of Christ come upon us, brightening our way and guiding us by his truth. May Christ our Savior bring life into the darkness of our world, and to us, as we wait for his coming. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The first candle is lit and all pray:

O Emmanuel, Jesus Christ, Desire of every nation, Savior of all peoples, Come and dwell among us.

The Unborn

By Bishop Michael Pfeifer, OMI

July 2022— (Part 4)

As shepherds of our people in the USA, we are deeply disturbed that our president has chosen to use his power as the nation's chief executive to promote and facilitate and even codify abortion in our country, rather than offering resources for pregnant women in need.

Our president and his political supporters are seeking every possible avenue to deny unborn children the most basic human and civil life, the right to life. We pray and encourage our president and his supporters to increase support to care for mothers and babies rather than seeking to facilitate destruction of defenseless and voiceless human beings.

As we support the personhood of the unborn and born, we keep in mind the words of Justice Samuel Alito supported by Justice Clarence Thomas, “the constitution makes no reference to abortion, and no such right is implicitly protected by any constitutional provision”. The Dobbs decision returns the profoundly moral question to the states, giving them the authority to protect human life through a democratic process and the ability to empower pregnant women by providing them with the resources they need to flourish. It presents an opportunity for America to return to a culture of life that values families, women, and motherhood.

God created the human person in the divine image and likeness as the pinnacle of all creation. Each of us shares in the image of God's glory. Through Christ, God further revealed to us the dignity of all human life. Christ's sacrifice on the cross powerfully demonstrates God's desire for us to share in eternal life with him. The value of human life must be truly great for the son of God to make it the instrument of our salvation. Human life as a gift from God is sacred and inviolable. May we commit ourselves to Christ and his mother with urgent prayer, fasting, dialogue and pastoral action so that our country and every state will uphold the dignity of each unborn child. THE UNBORN ARE COUNTING ON US.

Bishop Emeritus of the Diocese of San Angelo, Texas
