From St. Faustina's Diary Thankful For Everything

Do not defend yourself when you are put to shame, though innocent. Let others triumph. Do not stop being good when you notice that your goodness is being abused. I Myself will speak up for you when it is necessary. Be grateful for the smallest of My graces, because your gratitude compels Me to grant you new graces ... (Diary, 1701).

My Prayer Response With St. Faustina

Lord Jesus, help me not to defend myself when put to shame. May I be thankful for everything, especially for the smallest of Your graces.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type .

Make a Joyful Noise!

Our choir is looking for additional beautiful voices as we begin rehearsals for the Holiday Season. If you have experience in a choir, or if you simply love to sing, we invite you to join the choir at the Holy Mass of your choice. Gospel Reading—Sunday, October 5, 2025

Luke 17:5-10

Jesus teaches the apostles the importance of faith and service to God.

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus teach about faith and service to God. The context is a continuing dialogue between Jesus and his followers about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus has just finished an instruction on sin and forgiveness. There are two related teachings that Jesus offers to his disciples when they cry out for an increase in faith.

The first is the familiar reminder that faith, even just a little, will enable the followers of Jesus to do wondrous things. But this uplifting and inspiring teaching is quickly followed by the second teaching, a caution about knowing one's place in God's plans.

The disciples of Jesus are to understand themselves as servants to God and his plans. Even when God works wonders through us, with our mustard seed-sized faith, we must not seek praise. Our participation in God's plans is God's grace to us, nothing more, nothing less. When we are graced enough to cooperate with God, the work we do is nothing more than our obligation to God as faithful stewards. And yet, our faith enables us to believe that what we have offered in service to God, as his servants, can be made to produce a hundredfold.

Abortion is Better than Children Living in Poverty or With Disabilities???

If we are going to say "perfect" human life has value, but imperfect life does not, why does that discrimination have to end at birth? If it's compassionate to take the life of an unborn child who might possibly live a "terrible life" someday in the future, surely it is even more compassionate to take the lives of those children actually living a terrible life now!

There are many children growing up in poverty today in America, but has anyone ever heard an argument that their mothers have the right to take their lives, since they cannot afford to raise them? No one makes such an absurd and heartless argument because no amount of financial hardship can justify taking the life of another human being particularly an innocent child.

Abortion advocates support abortion on demand. They insist that women have the right to abort their children for any reason, or no reason at all, therefore appealing to the hard cases of financial instability is just a smoke-screen designed to mask their incredibly broad agenda.

The solution to poverty is not found in aborting the children of the poor. We have been doing that since 1973 and it most definitely has not worked. The real issue is not poverty, but the humanity of the unborn child.

Similarly, the suggestion that we should abort children who might grow up with a disability is barbaric and inhumane and has no place in a just society. Again, our disabilities should no more disqualify us from life before birth than they do after birth. If someone is born "normal", but later becomes handicapped, is he/she less entitled to the protection of the law? Furthermore, the argument is built on conjecture---on the mere "likelihood" that a child will have some kind of disability. Often, the tests prove wrong and even more often, these children, if allowed to live, end up with lives of joy and happiness that far exceeds those of their "more healthy" peers.

Anyone who tries to eliminate suffering by terminating the lives of the "sufferers" is establishing an extremely dangerous precedent! Who gets to design the "perfectness" scale?
