The Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead
all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Preparation for the Consecration to the Holy Family

Dearest Heavenly Father, Father of mercies, your Only Begotten Son, as He hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, His Mother, to be our Mother also. Grant, we pray, that with her loving help, and that of her most chaste spouse, Saint Joseph, we may humbly and prayerfully prepare ourselves as the parish of St. Vincent de Paul, for consecration to the Holy Family. We humbly make our prayer in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us prepare for the Parish's Consecration to the Holy Family.

This will take place in the following way:

1. Pray at least one decade of the Rosary (one Our Father, ten Hail Mary's and the Glory Be) and the Consecration Prayer (listed above) daily.
2. Attend Holy Mass every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation.
3. Go to Confession.
4. Adore our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The novena of prayers for the renewal of the parish consecration is underway. The consecration will take place December 31 & January 1, during all Holy Masses. The Consecration to the Holy Family is a Knights of Columbus Faith in Action Program.

Eucharistic Revival

The Holy Spirit and the Eucharistic Celebration

(25) St. John Chrysostom too notes that the priest invokes the Holy Spirit when he celebrates the sacrifice. (26) Like Elijah, the minister calls down the Holy Spirit so that "as grace comes down upon the victim, the souls of all are thereby inflamed" (27). The spiritual life of the faithful can benefit greatly from a better appreciation of the richness of the anaphora: along with the words spoken by Christ at the Last Supper, it contains the epiclesis, the petition to the Father to send down the gift of the Spirit so that the bread and wine will become the body and blood of Jesus Christ, and that "the community as a whole will become ever more the body of Christ" (28).

POPE FRANCIS' DECEMBER PRAYER INTENTION

Volunteer Not-for-profit Organizations

We pray that volunteer non-profit organizations committed to human development find people dedicated to the common good and ceaselessly seek out new paths to international cooperation.

From St. Faustina's Diary Be Always Ready

MEDITATION:

Today I said to the Lord, “When will You take me to Yourself? I’ve been feeling so ill, and I’ve been waiting for Your coming with such longing!” Jesus answered me, Be always ready; I will not leave you in this exile for long. My holy will must be fulfilled in you. O Lord, if Your holy will has not yet been entirely fulfilled in me, here I am, ready for everything that You want, O Lord! O my Jesus, there is only one thing which surprises me; namely, that You make so many secrets known to me; but that one secret, the hour of my death, You do not want to tell me. And the Lord answered me, Be at peace; I will let you know, but not just now (Diary, 1539).

MY PRAYER RESPONSE

Lord Jesus, prepare me for my own personal end times. May I fulfill Your will in my life and be at peace with Your perfect timing for my death and entrance into eternal life with You.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Gospel for Sunday December 4

Matthew 3:1-12

John the Baptist appears in Judea preaching a message of repentance.

John the Baptist appears in the tradition of the great prophets of Israel, preaching repentance and reform to the people of Israel. In fact, the description of John found in this reading is reminiscent of the description of the prophet Elijah (2 Kings 1:8). In this reading, John directs a particularly pointed call to repentance to the Pharisees and Sadducees, parties within the Jewish community of the first century.

John marks the conversion of those who seek him out with a baptism of repentance. Other groups in this period are thought to have practiced ritual washings for similar purposes, and John's baptism may have been related to the practices of the Essenes, a Jewish sect of the first century. John's baptism can be understood as an anticipation of Christian baptism. In this passage, John himself alludes to the difference between his baptism and the one yet to come: “I am baptizing you with water, for repentance . . . He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” (Matthew 3:11).

In this reading, John makes very clear that his relationship to the Messiah yet to come (Jesus) is one of service and subservience: “. . . the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals” (Matthew 3:11). In the context of Matthew's Gospel, today's passage is followed by Jesus' baptism by John, an event that is attested to in all four of the Gospels and appears to have been the start of Jesus' public ministry.

John's preaching of the coming of the Lord is a key theme of the Advent season. As John's message prepared the way for Jesus in the first century, we, too, are called to prepare ourselves for Jesus' coming. We respond to John's message by our repentance and reform of our lives. We are also called to be prophets of Christ, who announce by our lives, as John did, the coming of the Lord.

What is the HOMEBOUND MINISTRY?

Our Mission is to remind those who can't join us at Holy Mass - that they are missed, prayed for, and loved by their parish family. Once each month we gather to send a card to each of our homebound parishioners, to give them a bit of extra love and to let them know they are remembered. Do you have one hour each month that you can spend with us, sharing your heartfelt love for those who can't be with us due to illness or infirmity? If you are unable to attend Mass or know someone who is, or if you would like to join us, please contact Sandra Mackey, at (678)-907-2117, or shaymackretired@gmail.com.

A Rite for Advent at Home

Second Sunday of Advent

Traditionally, an Advent wreath is made of 4 candles in a circle. Each day at home, the candles are lit - one candle the first week and then another each succeeding week until December 25th.

A short prayer may accompany each lighting. The rose candle is usually lit on the 3rd Sunday of Advent. This long-standing tradition is a way to share our faith in our homes and not lose sight of the true meaning of Christmas.

The Advent wreath had been adapted into Christian tradition by the Middle Ages - around the 16th century. The wreath signifies continuous life. The 4 candles represent the 4 weeks of Advent and their light signifies Christ, the light of the world.

The second candle is lit and all pray:

O King of all nations, Jesus Christ, only joy of every heart, come and save your people.

Mass Time Change

The Saturday 6 p.m. Vigil Holy Mass that is celebrated in Spanish will move to Sunday at 3:00 p.m., beginning the weekend of December 31st and January 1st. Any scheduled Mass Intentions will move with the Holy Mass.

St. Therese of Lisieux's Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here, and their everlasting crown in the hereafter.

The False Narrative About Abortion

Part 1 of a 3-Part Series

There was a common phrase regarding abortion used by a well-known elected official in the U.S. in the 1990's and used again during the 2008 U.S. Presidential Campaign. The phrase went like this, "Abortion should be safe, legal and rare." Let's take a closer look at this anti-life/pro-abortion meme and this week, examine the first part, and the word, "safe."

Was abortion safe then? Is it safe now? The short answer...not always. Many women experience both physical and psychological complications after an abortion. Physical complications can range from, but are not limited to, blood clots, internal lacerations, infection, sepsis, hemorrhage and damage to the bowels and bladder. In some cases, a 'legal' abortion has resulted in a woman's death. Emotional complications can range from, but are not limited to, depression, anxiety, and feelings of loss, grief, and heart-wrenching guilt after having a 'legal' abortion.

And how safe are abortions for babies? Aborted babies are dead babies; thus, babies ALWAYS have an UNSAFE and DEADLY experience with abortion. Unborn babies were and still are, NEVER safe from being chemically burned, suctioned, vacuumed, dismembered, and yanked out of their mother's womb for those who choose to abort. (Next week we will discuss part two of this meme and the word, "legal.")

Carole Ann
