From St. Faustina's Diary Mortify Your Self-Will

When I left the confessional and started to recite my penance, I heard these words: I have granted the grace you asked for on behalf of that soul, but not because of the mortification you chose for yourself, but because of the act of complete obedience to My representative did I grant grace to that soul for whom you interceded and begged mercy. Know that when you mortify your own self-will, then Mine reigns within you (Diary, 365).

My Prayer Response With St. Faustina

Lord Jesus, help me to mortify my own self-will, so Your will shall reign within me. Give me opportunities through such mortification to help souls in need.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Please Note: The Donation report is delayed for a week due to Bulletin publication and printing deadlines.

Gospel Reading—Sunday, November 16, 2025 Luke 21:5-19

Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and warns his followers that persecution will come before the end time.

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways.

To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for humankind (salvation history). At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for "It will lead to your giving testimony" (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation.

Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties.

Here Today The Discalced Carmelite Saints Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity 1880-1906 -- Feast Day Nov 8th

"You must build, like me, a little silent cell within your soul. You must consider that the good God dwells there, and you must enter within from time to time. . . . It seems to me that this is a repose, a relaxation. We come quite simply to Him Whom we love, and our heart goes out to Him."

Questions Which Expose the Hypocrisy of Pro-Abortion Lobby

- Why is it the very people who say the government should stay out of abortion are the same ones who want the government to pay for abortions?
- If outlawing abortion violates a woman's right to privacy, don't laws outlawing child abuse, prostitution, pornography, drug use, etc., also violate this right?
- Abortion advocates say they are in the business to help women. Other than offering to terminate the lives of their children, what help do you offer?
{Compare: Pregnancy Resource Centers offer free pre-natal care, free room and board during pregnancy, help with adoption and post-abortion counseling.}
- If we use the absence of brain waves and a heartbeat to determine when a person's life has ended, why shouldn't we use the presence of brain waves and a heartbeat to determine when a person's life begins?
- Why is it that abortion advocates say they want women to have all their options, but they then fight so hard against laws requiring totally informed consent?
- Why do abortion advocates also fight against teaching school children how to abstain from dangerous sexual activity outside marriage?
- Why do abortion advocates also fight against laws that require parents to be informed about, or give consent for, their minor daughters' abortions?
- Should a woman be allowed to have an abortion for absolutely any reason, such as sex selection, selective reduction, or job promotion? If so, are there any reasons at all when abortion advocates believe that abortion would be unacceptable?

Preparation for the Renewal of the Consecration to the Holy Family

Dearest Heavenly Father, Father of mercies, your Only Begotten Son, as He hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, His Mother, to be our Mother also. Grant, we pray, that with her loving help, and that of her most chaste spouse, Saint Joseph, we may humbly and prayerfully prepare ourselves as the parish of St. Vincent de Paul, for consecration to the Holy Family. We humbly make our prayer in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us prepare for the Parish's Renewed Consecration to the Holy Family in the following way by:

1. Praying at least one decade of the Rosary (one Our Father, ten Hail Mary's and the Glory Be) and the Consecration Prayer (listed above) daily.
2. Attending Holy Mass every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation.
3. Going to Confession.
4. Adoring our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join in the novena of prayers for the renewal of the parish consecration to the Holy Family.

The consecration will take place
December 27 & 28, during all Holy Masses.

The Consecration to the Holy Family is a Knights of Columbus Faith in Action Program.
